

Millennium1 Solutions Announces US Expansion

TORONTO, July 24, 2014 - Millennium1 Solutions, a portfolio company of The Gores Group, is pleased to announce the expansion of its operating footprint in the US with the opening of a new contact centre facility in San Antonio, Texas.

Millennium's expansion is being driven by the organic growth of one of its US clients, and their need for incremental capacity. At full capacity, the Texas contact centre will offer as many as 211 new jobs in San Antonio, with hiring beginning in August of this year.

"We are experiencing a period of rapid growth resulting in extensive hiring in both Canada and the US" said Don Moffatt, CEO at Millennium1 Solutions. "We look forward to bringing the Millennium1 Solutions brand to San Antonio and being an active and positive contributor to the local business community."

The company is now recruiting for new San Antonio team members and interested candidates are invited to visit their website for company information and to apply online. The website will be updated regularly with new job postings.
