

THE GORES GROUP

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE GORES GROUP ACQUIRES DMN LTD, UK.

LOS ANGELES, CA, November 26, 2012 -- The Gores Group, a global investment firm, today announced that its Small Capitalization Partners fund in partnership with David Matton has completed the acquisition of DMN Ltd. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

DMN, which is headquartered in Swindon, UK, is a mobile communications network engineering support and staffing provider delivering a broad range of high quality wireless infrastructure services.

“DMN has built a strong reputation as a key provider of engineering and project management services to the mobile communications industry in the UK. The Gores Group is excited to partner with Dave Matton, who founded the business, in support of our strategy for further expansion in mobile communications services,” said Victor C. Otley III, Managing Director for The Gores Group. “The mobile infrastructure market is enjoying growth driven by the expanding demand for mobile bandwidth and the technologies that support it. DMN is well positioned to both enable and benefit from that growth.”

Dave Matton added, “We are delighted to become a part of The Gores Group. This is tremendous news for our company, our employees and customers. The Gores Group has an impressive track record of building market leading companies. The operational and financial support of The Gores team will provide enhanced support to DMN as we continue to build on our present success in the UK and internationally.”
