GORES TECHNOLOGY GROUP ACQUIRES INFINIUM FINANCIALS FOR MICROSOFT WINDOWS NT SOFTWARE PRODUCT LINE

LOS ANGELES, March 20, 2000 – Gores Technology Group (GTG), a leading international technology acquisition and management company, today announced that it has acquired the Infinium® Financials for Microsoft® Windows NT® software solution from Infinium Software, Inc.

"We are very pleased to acquire the Financials for NT software solution from Infinium Software," said Vance Diggins, GTG's president. "When GTG first identified Financials for NT as a potential acquisition, we immediately recognized it as an excellent complement to our product offerings. We look forward to significant future growth and to continuing to provide state-of-the-art customer service to all Financials for NT users."

"For Infinium, GTG's extensive experience, its track record of handling transactions quickly, and its committed sensitivity to employees and customers made this transaction straightforward," said Bob Pemberton, CEO of Infinium. "The entire process from inception to completion was a quick and smooth transaction, and we are confident that it will result in a positive transition for both employees and customers."
